St Ives

Abstract Artist Alexandra Dickens lovingly restores her former art gallery, Number Ten, creating this tranquil escape suited to any family, friends or fans of the creative realm, located in the heart of the historic Downalong area of St Ives, nestled through a quaint passage off one of Back Road West's traditional granite Fishermans cottages.

The property welcomes you into a generous living room adorned with Alexandra's artwork which first grabs your attention, filling the space with vibrant colour and light. Thoughtful touches of colour and texture in the soft furnishings, a smart TV and a reading desk complete the room. Neighbouring the living room is a bright contemporary kitchen, well equipped with integrated appliances and an induction hob, electric oven and microwave. An inviting breakfast/dining corner concludes the kitchen, comfortably seating 4 to indulge in any holiday feast.

A unique feature of Number Ten is its generous conservatory overlooking the private courtyard garden. The conservatory houses an integrated washer dryer and a fridge. 4 wicker chairs gather around a central coffee table creating a conversational spot as the sun smiles down into the room.

The courtyard garden is ideal for families with children to have space to run around and play with the dog or those summer evening BBQs and glasses of wine relaxing in the sun on the outdoor furniture. On the first floor are the 2 bedrooms, the first being the main radiant double bedroom decorated with more of Dickens' artworks and complete with ample clothing storage, TV and mirror. The second bedroom includes 2 twin single beds and additional storage in pull out drawers from underneath the beds. The family bathroom is flooded with light through the Velux sky light and boasts a large corner shower cubical, uniquely shaped sink bowl, toilet and heated towel rail.

Explore St Ives

There aren't many British seaside towns that manage to be both quaint and cool at the same time but St Ives ticks all the boxes. As well as its famous white sandy beaches, turquoise sea and golden light, this artists' mecca also has a thriving food scene, great surf and miles of breathtaking nearby coastline to explore.

Art

Tate is a national institution which is a network of four galleries that is home to the United Kingdom's collection of British art and international contemporary art. Set directly above the beautiful Porthmeor beach, Tate is the perfect place to lose yourself amongst the array of creative inspirations, browse the shop for a keepsake piece to take home with you and enjoy a bite to eat in the café.

The Barbara Hepworth museum and gardens nestled within the cobbled streets of St Ives displays the artist's iconic modern sculptures and other artworks along with a brief history of her creative journey and life from when she resided in the town during the Second World War.

Harbour Galleries along The Wharf is an arcade of 7 shops that offer a range of affordable prints, original works, sculptures, glassware and other coastal inspired artworks by local artists.

Food

St Ives has a rich history of iconic food and drink and the town is home to some award winning restaurants. From classic fish & chip shops sourcing locally sourced seafood to ice-cream parlours using Cornish reared dairy products, to deli's, bakeries, tea rooms, vegetarian restaurants and michelin star establishments.

At the top end of fine dining experiences has to be The Ugly Butterfly in The Carbis Bay Hotel. Ugly Butterfly showcases Chef Adam Handling's passion for converting locally sourced, quality ingredients into beautifully presented dishes, packed full of flavour. In keeping with both Adam's and the Estate's ethos, there is a strong focus on sustainability. Ugly Butterfly offers an all-day, fine-dining experience. Chef, Adam, has created the menus in the restaurant to be as elevated and theatrical as at 'Frog by Adam Handling' in London's Covent Garden and uses ingredients carefully sourced from in and around Cornwall.

The Allotment Deli stock a wide range of Cornish produce including award winning salamis, cheeses, olives and Cornish pies. They offer plenty of vegan treats to choose from, plus a range of speciality gluten free foods.

Beaches

Most people visit St Ives for its world famous beaches with their beautiful golden sand and striking turquoise waters, making you feel as if you're on a tropical island in paradise. The 6 main beaches of St Ives are : Porthgidden, Porthmeor, Harbour Beach, Carbis Bay Beach, Porthkidney and Porthminster.
