St Ives

Located on one of the prettiest and historic lanes in St Ives. The Little Snug is a cosy cottage and certainly has history date-stamped all over it. Dating back to the 1800s it is popular with guests visiting the town anytime of the year with everything just moments away from door step.

After a stylish and sympathetic renovation by the owners of The Little Snug. The cottage retains much of its character with exposed granite walls, original floor boards and feature beams but with a retro twist. Through the front stable door of The Little Snug you enter the living area furnished with two sofas, smart TV, bluetooth speaker, SMEG gas fire and folding dining table and chairs. A few steps up into the kitchen with solid wood work surfaces and baby blue appliances. An electric oven with gas burner hob, SMEG fridge/freezer, DAB radio, Nespresso coffee machine and milk frother. A small utility room with a washing machine and tumble dryer.

On the first floor is the master bedroom with a king size bed, TV, vanity unit and a window seat with harbour view glimpses. Up a few more steps you will find the bunk room with two single beds looking out into the rear garden. A wet room with shower, wash basin and WC completes the top floor. The outside space of The Little Snug comprises of the front courtyard with bench and table and the rear garden with a terraced balcony. The rear garden is accessed through the kitchen which has outdoor seating and stunning harbour views.

Explore St Ives

There aren't many British seaside towns that manage to be both quaint and cool at the same time but St Ives ticks all the boxes. As well as its famous white sandy beaches, turquoise sea and golden light, this artists' mecca also has a thriving food scene, great surf and miles of breathtaking nearby coastline to explore.

Art

Tate is a national institution which is a network of four galleries that is home to the United Kingdom's collection of British art and international contemporary art. Set directly above the beautiful Porthmeor beach, Tate is the perfect place to lose yourself amongst the array of creative inspirations, browse the shop for a keepsake piece to take home with you and enjoy a bite to eat in the café.

The Barbara Hepworth museum and gardens nestled within the cobbled streets of St Ives displays the artist's iconic modern sculptures and other artworks along with a brief history of her creative journey and life from when she resided in the town during the Second World War.

Harbour Galleries along The Wharf is an arcade of 7 shops that offer a range of affordable prints, original works, sculptures, glassware and other coastal inspired artworks by local artists.

Food

St Ives has a rich history of iconic food and drink and the town is home to some award winning restaurants. From classic fish & chip shops sourcing locally sourced seafood to ice-cream parlours using Cornish reared dairy products, to deli's, bakeries, tea rooms, vegetarian restaurants and michelin star establishments.

At the top end of fine dining experiences has to be The Ugly Butterfly in The Carbis Bay Hotel. Ugly Butterfly showcases Chef Adam Handling's passion for converting locally sourced, quality ingredients into beautifully presented dishes, packed full of flavour. In keeping with both Adam's and the Estate's ethos, there is a strong focus on sustainability. Ugly Butterfly offers an all-day, fine-dining experience. Chef, Adam, has created the menus in the restaurant to be as elevated and theatrical as at 'Frog by Adam Handling' in London's Covent Garden and uses ingredients carefully sourced from in and around Cornwall.

The Allotment Deli stock a wide range of Cornish produce including award winning salamis, cheeses, olives and Cornish pies. They offer plenty of vegan treats to choose from, plus a range of speciality gluten free foods.

Beaches

Most people visit St Ives for its world famous beaches with thier beautiful golden sand and striking turquoise waters, making you feel as if you're on a tropical island in paradise. The 6 main beaches of St Ives are : Porthgidden, Porthmeor, Harbour Beach, Carbis Bay Beach, Porthkidney and Porthminster.
