St Ives

New to Sandy Toes Stays for 2023, Porthmeor Hill Post is our charming, characterful and contemporary ground floor apartment with two bedrooms, both with en suite bathrooms, located at the top of Porthmeor Hill just moments away from the beach and conveniently next door to Ayr Stores. The property is perfect for couples, families or friends looking to take a break by the beach.

The open-plan living/ dining room are flooded with natural light through the huge south facing windows overlooking the front garden. The dining table comfortably accommodates 4-6 people for family dinners or morning coffees in the sun. Flowing through to the living room area which has 2 generously sized sofas centred around the TV, the walls adorned with local abstract artwork. A wall of glass tiles separates the living areas from the kitchen which is galley style. It is well equipped with integrated appliances, coffee percolator, electric hob and modern Belfast style sink.

At the back of the apartment are the 2 bedrooms. The first bedroom has a double size bed, dressing table area and sizeable built in wardrobes fit for a whole families worth of luggage. Views of The Island and Porthmeor Beach are visible out the window. There is a stylish en suite shower room off the first bedroom with double shower unit and monochromatic colour palette. The second bedroom has a King size bed, plenty of clothing storage and an en suite bathroom in the same contemporary style and a full soaking tub. Porthmeor Hill Post also includes a generous, walled front garden with outdoor seating and patio, surrounded by neighbouring shrubs and palm trees, ideal for alfresco summer meals.

Explore Carbis Bay & St Ives

Carbis Bay beach is one of the best family beaches with most needed facilities on the beachfront. A range of ocean based activities may be taken at The Ocean Sports Centre on Carbis Bay beach.

You can also stroll a gentle fifteen minute walk along the South West coast path from Carbis Bay to St Ives and enjoy the spectacular views over St Ives Bay. Explore St Ives which is full of wonderful galleries, restaurants, cafes, shops and beaches. With its narrow cobbled streets and fisherman's cottages.

Art

Tate is a national institution which is a network of four galleries that is home to the United Kingdom's collection of British art and international contemporary art. Set directly above the beautiful Porthmeor beach, Tate is the perfect place to lose yourself amongst the array of creative inspirations, browse the shop for a keepsake piece to take home with you and enjoy a bite to eat in the café.

The Barbara Hepworth museum and gardens nestled within the cobbled streets of St Ives displays the artist's iconic modern sculptures and other artworks along with a brief history of her creative journey and life from when she resided in the town during the Second World War.

Harbour Galleries along The Wharf is an arcade of 7 shops that offer a range of affordable prints, original works, sculptures, glassware and other coastal inspired artworks by local artists.

Food

St Ives has a rich history of iconic food and drink and the town is home to some award winning restaurants. From classic fish & chip shops sourcing locally sourced seafood to ice-cream parlours using Cornish reared dairy products, to deli's, bakeries, tea rooms, vegetarian restaurants and michelin star establishments.

At the top end of fine dining experiences has to be The Ugly Butterfly in The Carbis Bay Hotel. Ugly Butterfly showcases Chef Adam Handling's passion for converting locally sourced, quality ingredients into beautifully presented dishes, packed full of flavour. In keeping with both Adam's and the Estate's ethos, there is a strong focus on sustainability. Ugly Butterfly offers an all-day, fine-dining experience. Chef, Adam, has created the menus in the restaurant to be as elevated and theatrical as at 'Frog by Adam Handling' in London's Covent Garden and uses ingredients carefully sourced from in and around Cornwall.

The Allotment Deli stock a wide range of Cornish produce including award winning salamis, cheeses, olives and Cornish pies. They offer plenty of vegan treats to choose from, plus a range of speciality gluten free foods.

Beaches

Most people visit St Ives for its world famous beaches with their beautiful golden sand and striking turquoise waters, making you feel as if you're on a tropical island in paradise. The 6 main beaches of St Ives are : Porthgwidden, Porthmeor, Harbour Beach, Carbis Bay Beach, Porthkidney and Porthminster.
