An outside shower from the rear kitchen door is perfectly placed to wash off the salt and sand after a day on the water. A short wander down to the harbour to explore the boutique shops and cool cafes and restaurants all on the door step. The Poop Deck is spacious, bright and airy, the open plan layout and large windows offer great views of the harbour and beach, with direct access to the private covered balcony. The master bedroom at the front of the apartment offers panoramic sea views with french doors leading to the balcony. An ensuite shower room with a statement frosted glass door, large built in wardrobe and dressing table with mirror. The second bedroom offers flexibility for any groups' needs due to the zip/lock bed. This can be arranged to be two single beds or converted into a king size bed on request. The third bedroom provides two single beds via a hand built fitted bunk bed set up. In between these bedrooms lies the family bathroom with shower over bath facilities, wash basin, LED light mirror and WC. The Poop Deck's open plan living space provides the perfect place to relax, socialise, eat and drink. Stylishly furnished by Iroka with a large sofa, arm chair, flat screen smart TV and sound system. The well equipped kitchen offers everything you should need during your stay including fridge/freezer, microwave, dishwasher and an electric hob and oven. The living area is completed with a beautiful blue coloured glass table with ample seating for six and two armchairs in the bay window looking out over the wharf. Guests also have access to a small shed full of beach items and an outdoor shower perfect for use after a seaside trip. The Poop Deck also offers one private parking space situated in a secure garage car park on Bedford Road.

Explore St Ives

There aren't many British seaside towns that manage to be both quaint and cool at the same time but St Ives ticks all the boxes. As well as its famous white sandy beaches, turquoise sea and golden light, this artists' mecca also has a thriving food scene, great surf and miles of breathtaking nearby coastline to explore.

Art

Tate is a national institution which is a network of four galleries that is home to the United Kingdom's collection of British art and international contemporary art. Set directly above the beautiful Porthmeor beach, Tate is the perfect place to lose yourself amongst the array of creative inspirations, browse the shop for a keepsake piece to take home with you and enjoy a bite to eat in the café.

The Barbara Hepworth museum and gardens nestled within the cobbled streets of St Ives displays the artist's iconic modern sculptures and other artworks along with a brief history of her creative journey and life from when she resided in the town during the Second World War.

Harbour Galleries along The Wharf is an arcade of 7 shops that offer a range of affordable prints, original works, sculptures, glassware and other coastal inspired artworks by local artists.

Food

St Ives has a rich history of iconic food and drink and the town is home to some award winning restaurants. From classic fish & chip shops sourcing locally sourced seafood to ice-cream parlours using Cornish reared dairy products, to deli's, bakeries, tea rooms, vegetarian restaurants and michelin star establishments.

At the top end of fine dining experiences has to be The Ugly Butterfly in The Carbis Bay Hotel. Ugly Butterfly showcases Chef Adam Handling's passion for converting locally sourced, quality ingredients into beautifully presented dishes, packed full of flavour. In keeping with both Adam's and the Estate's ethos, there is a strong focus on sustainability. Ugly Butterfly offers an all-day, fine-dining experience. Chef, Adam, has created the menus in the restaurant to be as elevated and theatrical as at 'Frog by Adam Handling' in London's Covent Garden and uses ingredients carefully sourced from in and around Cornwall.

The Allotment Deli stock a wide range of Cornish produce including award winning salamis, cheeses, olives and Cornish pies. They offer plenty of vegan treats to choose from, plus a range of speciality gluten free foods.

Beaches

Most people visit St Ives for its world famous beaches with thier beautiful golden sand and striking turquoise waters, making you feel as if you're on a tropical island in paradise. The 6 main beaches of St Ives are : Porthgwidden, Porthmeor, Harbour Beach, Carbis Bay Beach, Porthkidney and Porthminster.
